Chicago, IL - Shop Local! The Armitage Halsted Webster Association is hosting their 16th annual Sidewalk Sale on July 23 and 24 in conjunction with the Sheffield Garden Walk & Festival in Lincoln Park. To date, more than 20 shops will be joining in a good ole' fashioned sidewalk sale. The Armitage Halsted Webster Association is a volunteer group of local business owners banding together to promote SHOP LOCAL initiatives and promote Lincoln Park as a top destination in Chicago.

Alice Lerman of Barker & Meowski and committee member of the Armitage Halsted Webster Association says, "we are excited about the energy of local shop owners including new businesses to the neighborhood." According to Lerman, it's the perfect weekend to come out and celebrate Lincoln Park and the shop local initiative. When you shop local in the neighborhood, visitors can expect friendly and personal service.

Visitors that stop by all the locations on the passport pass given out at the sale and be entered to win a grand prize package of items from all participating merchants.

The Armitage Halsted Webster Association consists of more than forty award-winning boutiques, restaurants and personal services line this historic Chicago neighborhood. The area is an easy way to experience big city convenience in a neighborhood setting. From irresistible furniture, clothing, antiques, jewelry, home accessories, table tops, shoes, four-star restaurants, hair salons, spas and other services are all within strolling distance.
